Dear [Redacted]

STAT

Now that your summer assignment has drawn to a close, I would like to thank you for your fine work for JPRS. Your compiling of the tables of contents for the year's reports was excellent and greatly appreciated. You also provided valuable assistance in xeroxing, collating and distributing the JPRS newsletter and serving as back-up mail clerk.

Your colleagues enjoyed having you work with them and join me in wishing you all the best for your junior year at Washington University.

/ Sincerely,
